

Book Sale
stbbooksale@gmail.com

About the sale:

I have been collecting liturgical and other books for the last four decades. As we move into what I hope is our permanent retirement home, I would like to downsize my collection and find homes for many of these volumes with people who will love them as much as I have.

I believe they are priced fairly. 10% of the total raised from the sale will be donated to charity.

I can answer questions about books and even scan a page or two if necessary.

All books have been in my possession for anywhere from five to forty years. They will have signs of shelf wear, etc., but I have graded their quality to the best of my ability. Nevertheless, all sales final.

$5 flat shipping on all orders within the United States. Shipping abroad at cost plus $5 for packaging.

To reserve a book, please list the item no. and title. Easiest would be to cut & paste the listings below.

Reservations for books will be processed in the order received at the address listed above. Once finalized, I will send you a PayPal invoice from this account (stbbooksale@gmail.com); it will have my husband's name on it (David Worley).

Please pay promptly; orders will be canceled if not paid within 24 hours.

The sale ends Monday, July 22 at 12 noon CDT. All orders will be shipped then or earlier. We are in the midst of the move, so things may be a bit chaotic. But I hope to have everything gone within two weeks.

Thank you for your interest.

A basic introduction to the private recitation of the office is provided. The lectionary has been completely redone and includes a concise introduction to the Bible. The translation of the Psalter has been somewhat revised, is ordered by theme, and is provided with antiphons. The number of canticles in Morning Prayer has been greatly expanded to choices from eight for each day of the week. It is also the doctrine of the atonement and our belief in immortality. This should be a most valuable addition to the clergyman's library, and, for the worshipper, an aid to the understanding and appreciation of our central Christian rite.	$6.00 Very good
